

Teachers' Training Workshop:

Interactive and Innovative Learning in Liberal Arts

Bratislava, 25-26 May 2017

Presentation of newly published kit for training teachers in higher education (prepared as part of the Erasmus+ funded project The Best Liberal Arts and Science Teaching Expanded and Reinforced – BLASTER)

Event description

This seminar on pedagogical methods to support quality learning at undergraduate level is organised for about 45 participants, who are mainly early-career teachers in Liberal Arts and other undergraduate programs in Europe. The purpose of the event is to disseminate good practices in undergraduate education as presented in our newly prepared publication – Learning and Teaching in the Liberal Arts: Teacher Training Kit. All workshops will be interactive and they will engage participants in experiencing and enjoying active learning methods.

Venue: BISLA College, Grösslingová 53, Bratislava, Slovakia

Programme

25 May 2017

2:00–2:15 PM: Welcome by Samuel Abrahám, ECOLAS Executive Board

2:15–3:45 PM: Workshop 1: Stimulating interdisciplinarity

by Cathia Jenainati, Rebecca Fisher & Gavin Schwartz-Leeper, University of Warwick

3:45–4:15 PM: break

4:15–5:45 PM: Workshop 2: Encouraging critical thinking at students

by Gabriela Pleschová, University of Economics, Bratislava

6:00pm: garden party at BISLA

26 May 2017

9:30–11:00 AM: Workshop 3: Problem-based learning

by Lisette Wijnia, University College Roosevelt, Middelburg

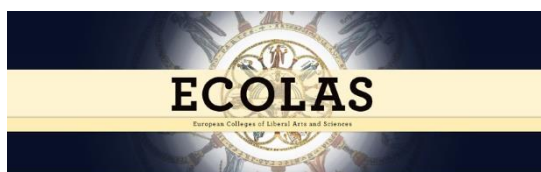

11:00–11:30: break

11:30–13:00 PM: Workshop 4: Reflective and scholarly teaching

by Agi Simon, Masaryk University in Brno

13:00–14:00 PM: Roundtable: Advancing Teacher Development in Liberal Arts

Contact person: Andrej Čierny (ECOLAS), cierny@ecolas.eu, Tel.: +421 904 511 578

Erasmus+

http://www.ecolas.eu/eng/?page_id=22

<http://www2.warwick.ac.uk/fac/arts/schoolforcross-facultystudies/liberalarts/Erasmus>